Privacy

Rise & Shine has no ads, no accounts and no tracking. It never sends anything anywhere. Children's names and answers are saved only on the device, in the browser, and in backup files you choose to make. Please use first names only and follow your school's rules about student information.

Good to know

Rise & Shine was tested carefully, but devices and browsers differ: please try it on your own devices before relying on it. The voice comes from the device, so it sounds different on each one. Rise & Shine supports a routine; it does not replace your own teaching, judgment or a child's IEP team. If anything doesn't work, ask in the Q&A on the product page.
